

Questions PARENTS Can Ask School Leaders to Assess Commitment to Admitting and SERVING Special Needs Students

- Is serving students with special needs an important part of your school's mission?
- Do you feel you have the infrastructure in place to serve special needs students with diverse accommodations suggested in their IEP/504?
- Does your school utilize student IEP/504 plans to construct a Student Success Plan (SSP) that is implemented with the teachers here to help the student succeed?
- Do you have support staff designated to serve and support the students using SSP plans in your school?
- What is your process for updating parents on student progress as it pertains to the goals set forth in their SSP?
- Do you work with any special needs organizations who offer additional support to families with special needs students?
